

Border County Notes

From Our Exchanges

CARROLL

Last Wednesday night while Indian Tom was at the moving picture show "Old Joe" one of the fire horses succeeded in getting loose and went over and untied his mate, then he worked the combination on the chain at the door, this giving both the horses their liberty. When Tom came back and found the horses gone he proceeded immediately to put the city work team in the stalls where the first team belonged. The report soon got all over Carrollton that the horses were stolen and the Marshal was ready to telephone all over the county when they were found at Geo Jackson's farm.

Joseph M. Parks died last Friday at his home in Sugar tree township with consumption. Mr. Parks had been a sufferer of the dreadful disease for nearly two years. He was 47 years of age. He is survived by his widow and three small children.

Gale B. Douglas has resigned his position with the Mitchell Jewelry Company in Carrollton.

The report which came out in several papers stating that Loxier would be a candidate for Congress in the second district was a mistake. Mr. Loxier says that he knows of no condition under which he could make the race and the use of his name in this connection does him an injustice.

Ed McGrew the colored ex-convict arrested for shooting at his wife, was given a preliminary hearing before Justice McGuire last Saturday morning. In the courtroom Magaw created a disturbance by attacking his wife with a knife attempting to cut her throat, but he missed his aim and only stabbed her in the arm. Sheriff Calvert grabbed him before he could strike again. He was bound over to the circuit court and was again committed to jail.

W. M. H. Ward died in the St. Joseph's hospital last Friday night, and the superintendent has wired for instructions concerning the disposition of the body. Ward was sent to the asylum from Carroll county in 1882, but none of the present officers know anything concerning his relatives.

A couple of "walking delegates" from Kansas City were in Carrollton last Monday trying to get the marble workers in the postoffice building to strike again. They did not succeed and returned to Kansas City on the evening train. The marble workers went on a strike in the fall and tied up the work for several weeks, but the strike finally declared off and work was resumed and can be completed in a few weeks if nothing prevents.

Mrs. Clark Brown of Norborne who has been mentally unbalanced for three weeks and has been getting worse, and her condition became such that it was necessary for something to be done to restrain her. She was ordered by the court to be taken to St. Joseph hospital until she is restored to her normal condition.

Donald M. Eakin died last Wednesday at his home in Carrollton at the age of 71 years. He is survived by his widow and two children.

Funerals:—E. L. Grant, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Grant, died last Sunday at his home in Carrollton. He was 21 years of age.

HOWARD

The City of Fayette has about 11,500 available for the retirement of the bonds which the city now has out, according to the City Clerk, Willard Smith. The present bonded indebtedness of the city is $56,000 which is nearly the limit of indebtedness under the old law, namely five per cent of the assessed valuation of property, $1,300,000.

Last Saturday evening as Will Miller and Will Payne were leaving Fayette the team they were driving and which belonged to Miller became frightened and began to run on Main street. The four o'clock train was just in and when the team got to a corner they made a sudden turn, throwing both men out of the buggy on their faces. They then got onto the railroad and in front of the moving train and ran for some distance until they took the dirt road about two miles and a half. The men were not hurt but the buggy was badly damaged. One of the horses died the next day from either injury or fright.

The will of the late Theodore Todd of New Franklin was filed with Probate Judge Bagby in Fayette last Monday.

Jasper Thompson has announced himself as candidate for prosecuting attorney of Howard county. Mr. Thompson has been practicing law ten years and has built up a lucrative business in Fayette.

Probably 150 men attended the public sale given by Miss Laura J. Patterson of near Fayette, last Thursday. The sale totaled $2,680. 34 head of cattle and 37 head of hogs were among the live stock sold. One span of mules brot $390 and one span brot 210. John Ross paid $175 for the lightest priced horse sold.

Miss Etta Estill, the charming and accomplished daughter of Col. Wallace Estill of Estill has announced her engagement to Dr. Elliott Alden who is a prominent surgeon of Los Angeles, Calif. The wedding will occur in May.

Chas. Street, Jr., and Page Crews of New Franklin made a deal last week whereby the former obtained 163 acres of land in Grimes county, Texas and Mr. Crews took in on the trade some brood mares and got a cash difference.

Mrs. J. P. Coleman of Keytesville visited her daughter, Mrs. Birkhart Talbot of Fayette last week.

Wallace Talbot, son of Col. and Mrs. John Talbot of Fayette left last Tuesday for Memphis, Tenn., where he will have charge of the New York Life Insurance Co.'s agency at that place.

Hon. U. S. Hall will have strong opposition for congressman in the person of Paul Prosser, prosecuting attorney of Howard county, recognized not only as one of the most brilliant orators in this state but also one of the brightest young lawyers.

Mrs. J. B. McCasland, who some time ago broke her ankle near the Baptist church in Fayette had the misfortune to again break the same ankle last week.

C. E. Howell and family of Armstrong removed to Moberly last week. Mr. Howell will operate a bus line in Moberly.

At the meeting of the stockholders of the Armstrong opera house held last Monday night, the house was sold to a new owner.

LINN

Dr. Thomas P. Oven for more than thirty years a prominent physician in Brookfield died of pneumonia last Thursday. Aged 68 years.

A drainage meeting was held in the opera house at Linneus last Saturday. Mr. Jacoby of Kansas City was present and delivered some interesting speeches on drainage methods and results.

Dr. Hamilton DeGraw of Brookfield passed away last Thursday morning after being ailing for twenty-eight hours. He was in his 95th year when he died.

Harry Reed, the former Brookfielder, and at present superintendent of the Missouri Division of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railroad, with headquarters at Trenton, has been promoted to superintendency of the Illinois Division, with headquarters at Rock Island.

R. W. Ran and Chas. Stewart of Brookfield are much interested in the establishment of a Parochial school in Brookfield. There is every prospect of the school being built at a cost of not less than $18,000 and it will be a great addition to that city.

Ed Mahuran got mixed up with a revolving shaft at the stacker factory last Thursday but the not seriously injured, all his clothes were torn from his body and he fell quite a distance pulling the machine over on himself.

J. W. Hershey, a young farmer who lives west of Marceline on the farm of his father, J. D. Hershey was fortunate enough to kill a red fox when he was out trying to kill rabbits. Mr. Hershey said he saw the fox lying asleep in the pasture when he was on his way to hunt rabbits and also feed the stock.

Marriages:—Jessie F. Howk, Brookfield, and Louisa Fleetwood Brunswick, Clarence A. Darling, Kansas City, Mo., and Verna L. Gibson, Browning, Benjamin G. Arnold, North Salem, and Cassie L. McDonald, Brookfield.

SALINE

Mrs. Isabella Rader the widow of Rev. Andrew M. Rader died at her home in Marshall after an illness of about a week. Deceased was 84 years of age. She is survived by eight children.

Mrs. Ellen Houston aged 82 years died last Friday and Miss Beattie Duvall aged 23 years died last Monday, both at their homes in Marshall.

A. A. Grimes of Jefferson City has rented the Campbell building formerly occupied by F. W. Miles in Marshall and will open up with a general stock of goods about the middle of the month. He has gone to Jefferson City now to pack up his household goods and stock.

The body of Mrs. M. B. Peavler of Mounds, Okla., and formerly a citizen of Saline county arrived in Marshall last Thursday night, and were buried there.

Phillip Leininger one of Napoleon's oldest and highly esteemed citizens died at his home there last Friday about noon sitting in his chair. Deceased was 78 years of age an old bachelor. He has left a large estate and has no heirs here but has some Germany.

Chas. Armstrong, nightwatchman at Slater was called to Hannibal last week on account of a serious accident which occurred to his son Chas. Jr., who came in contact with a live wire while doing some work for the Bell telephone company at that place.

Marriages:—Charles Howard and Rosa McCormick, both of Gilliam. John Kohring of Saline and Blanche White of Saline. John William Piper and Irene M. Grant both of Hannibal.

RANDOLPH

Hugh Lamb of Moberly was in Huntsville last Saturday and announced that he would be in the race for county assessor at the August primary.

Willie Shepherd, of Moberly has purchased the restaurant and lunch stand from Bogie & Montgomery, located in the basement of the Breckinridge Hotel and took possession of same last Monday.

Joe P. Hammett was in Huntsville last week and bought 63 head of horses and mules from people of that vicinity.

Lon McCorkle of near the Randolph Springs sold 23 head of 3-year-old mare mules to Mayer Brothers and Edwards of St. Louis for $5,405 or $235 per head. The same firm on the same day bought 22 head of mules from J. W. Robertson of near Roanoke for $215 per head.

The funeral of Mrs. J. B. Hill was conducted by Rev. Wright at the Baptist church in Moberly last Sunday.

Ezra Sears, deputy county clerk, bought the 93 acre farm of Mrs. Sarah Burton of Moberly. The land is near the Randolph Springs consideration $5,200.

Jim Rice of Moberly and Miss Nellie Kier of Stanberry were married the 19th of June 1910 and have kept it a secret every since until last Thursday, which was the young wife's birthday. Mrs. Rice was 16 when she married and after the marriage she went away to a convent in Kansas where she was unable to communicate with her husband.

After a while a girl was born and ever since the child was three months of age it has been in Christ's home in Council Bluffs, Iowa. A friend of Mr. and Mrs. Rice arranged for them to meet in Missouri her birthday where they made the announcement. The young parents left Saturday for Council Bluffs to get the little daughter who has never seen her father.

Rev. Davis, of West Park church in Moberly was called to Fulton last Friday to preach the funeral of Mrs. Forsee. Just a year ago Rev. Davis performed the marriage ceremony of the young woman.

The body of Conductor James Noland who died in St. Louis last Tuesday arrived in Moberly last Thursday. The surviving relatives are a wife two brothers and one sister.

Rev. Smith conducted the funeral of Mrs. John Brown last Thursday who died at her home in Moberly Wednesday.

Sometime last Wednesday night a thief or thieves entered the office of the McAfee Mill & Commission Co., of Moberly and carried the new $600 cash register to the back of the building. The machine was badly battered and beaten, but can be fixed. They got $3 in nickles out of the machine and broke into a safe and got $10 in cash which belonged to the church.

Mrs. Effie L. Terry died in the Woodlawn hospital in Moberly last Wednesday night. She was afflicted with gall stones and complication of ailments. She was 82 years of age. Mrs. Terry's home is in Ardmore.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

You are probably aware that pneumonia always results from a cold, but you never heard of a cold resulting in pneumonia when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was used. Why take the risk when this remedy may be had for a trifle? For sale by all dealers.

Take the Chariton Courier.

Write on a friendly call Adams & Newman.

The Cook always feels confident of pure and wholesome food when using

DR. PRICE'S CREAM Baking Powder

A Pure Grape Cream of Tartar Baking Powder Made from Grapes

No Alum No Lime Phosphate

MACON

Capt. J. I. Ketchan aged 73 years and a resident of Macon since the Civil War died at his home in Macon last Saturday.

Jesse B. Stamper has announced himself as a candidate for sheriff of Macon county.

The sheriff's office was notified last Tuesday evening that John Vail had been taken at St. Charles, and to come and get him. Deputy Sheriff Gross went down last Wednesday morning and arrived with the prisoner that night. Vail and George Nelson got out of jail in the early part of the month. Vail had pleaded guilty to burglary and was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary. He was awaiting transportation when he took a notion to move out. Sheriff Hall had offered a reward of $50 for the apprehension of the two fugitives.

Joseph Holvey has announced himself as a candidate for sheriff for Macon county. Mr. Holvey is now Marshal of Macon and has given good satisfaction.

William Henry, deputy sheriff at Ardmore came to Macon last Thursday morning and stated that in an endeavor to arrest Jim Alexander he shot the latter who had resisted and tried to shoot him according to Henry. It was reported later that Alexander had died from the wound. Prosecuting Attorney Jones went to Ardmore Friday to look into the matter.

M. A. List of near Callao in negotiation for Macon residence property and will move his family to same some time the latter part of the month or first of March.

Marriage:—John J. Mohring of Peorio, Ill., and Hattie M. Means, of Macon. Herman L. Morgan of Kansas City and Beulah E. Gross of Macon. Julius S. Onsdorff of Bucklin and Minnie May Rogers of New Cambria.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children

The Kind You Always Bought

Bears the Signature of J. C. FLETCHER

Quite Another Matter

Aunt. And did you get many presents, dear?

Georgie. Oh, dear, no, auntie I got more books than presents.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

How It Turned Out

"I told that dub he was foolish to be courting so many girls."

"How did it turn out?"

"As you might expect. His expenses were so heavy that he got behind with his board and had to marry his landlady."

Are You A Woman?

TAKE

CARDUI

The

Woman's Tonic